

MARI SUMIDA-MIYASHIRO

contact

(808) 234-8811

mksm328@gmail.com

Honolulu, Hi

coming soon...

hello

I am currently studying Interface Design within KCC's New Media Arts program. I have always had a love for art and enjoy exploring new creative outlets. I hope to continue my creative journey by pushing the boundaries of visual design while working alongside fellow creatives.

education

Kapiolani Community College

Honolulu, Hi.

2019 - Present

Kalani High School

Honolulu, Hi.

2006-2010

skills

- Adobe Creative Cloud
- UX / UI Design
- HTML / CSS
- JavaScript

work experience

Kaimuki Dry Goods

March 2018 - March 2020; sales associate

Customer Assistance

- provide friendly and knowledgeable assistance to customers in locating and selecting fabrics
- offer suggestions and recommendations based on customers' preferences and project needs

Product Knowledge

- stay up-to-date with the latest fabric trends, patterns, and materials
- have an understanding of the store's inventory, including fabric types, prints, and textures

Stock Management and Visual Merchandising

- keep fabric displays organized and neat throughout the day
- assist with receiving new shipments of fabrics, checking for accuracy and quality
- regularly update displays to showcase featured or seasonal fabrics

Ross, Dress for Less

May 2015 - February 2017; front-end supervisor

Staff Management

- schedule and assign tasks to cashiers
- address employee concerns and conflicts in a timely and professional manner

Customer Service

- handle customer complaints, inquiries, and issues in a courteous and efficient manner
- monitor and improve customer waiting times and service quality

Cash Management

- oversee cash handling procedures, including opening and closing cash registers

Team Communication

- promote effective communication between front-end staff and management